

A New TPO & Seapost Publication.

BLUE FUNNEL LINE.

The Society is proud to present the third in the series of books on GB shipping lines following on from Bank Line and Blue Star Line. This new publication is a full and complete history of the BLUE FUNNEL LINE with over 640 ship photographs and over 250 paquebot related covers posted from the ships themselves. If you are interested in seapost and paquebot covers then this is the book for you, printed as a softback it has 208 pages and hardly a white space to be seen in the whole book such is the packed content of this book.

As a member of this Society the book is offered at a discounted price but strictly for members only, this book on Blue Funnel Line being the next in a long line of publications that have been published by your excellent Society and with luck not the last to be rushed from the printers.

These are just two of the pages taken from the book showing the mass of information and the variety of photographs and paquebot covers placed into the book.

The book has a retail price of £32.50 but to all Society members then the price is £30 plus £2.70 for inland UK postage (for overseas please ask for a quote).
