Register of Speakers

The Society has been asked many times in the past if we have a register of speakers who are prepared to display their various collections and speak on them to other societies. If you are willing to be entered on to our Register of Speakers which will be maintained by the society, please would you furnish us with the following information? Invitations to speak will be passed to you for your consideration. Your personal details will not be passed to a third party without your express permission.
